ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Paris, 3rd.

It is generally believed that the Powers are in favour of the projected union of Bulgaria and Roumelia, and that it will receive their official sanction at the International Conference at Constantinople.

Athens, 3rd.

In view of the weak financial situation "curso forzoso" has been declared in Greece.

Palermo, 3rd.

Cholera morbus declining continually.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

London, 30th—A French troopship has not been allowed to enter the Suez Canal owing to the report that cholera had broken out on board.

Great consternation prevails in official circles in Constantinople owing to the discovery made by the new Minister of War. When he took his seat in the Cabinet he issued orders in virtue of which all commanders were to immediately send in a report on the condition, number, etc., of the troops under their command. The officers of inspection found the army in a most backward condition. Considerable sums of money, which had been voted for military purposes, had been inverted for other purposes. The army at Adrianople, which was said to number 15000 men, does not reach half that number. The soldiers had no uniforms or shoes. The cavalry regiments were without horses. Four hundred horse and 2,000 foot soldiers have been fully equipped and have received orders to march at once.

Constantinople, 30th—The Porte has advised the railways to prepare for the transport of troops to Adrianople. It is stated that on the frontier 60,000 Turks have pitched their tents in front of 50,000 Bulgarians.

Great preparations are made for war. Eighty battalions of the 1st class reserves are being mobilized on the Black Sea. Great activity is displayed in concentrating troops on those points most conveniently situated for an invasion into Roumelian territory.

London, Oct. 1st—The Italian Government has notified the powers that it is in favor of the 'statu quo' in Roumelia, and will cooperate to bring the crisis to an end.

Philippopolis, 1st—Prince Alexander has ordered the immediate return of a Bulgarian body of armed men, who had decided to invade Macedonia. Two Servian insurgents have been arrested.

Malta, 1st—It is rumored that the English squadron have received orders to steer for Turkish waters.

Loudon, 1st—According to telegrams just received from Constantinople, four men-of-war have received orders to prepare to sail at once, but as only 600 tons of coal can be disposed of, their departure will probably be postponed.

An encounter took place yesterday between the Turks and the advanced army of Roumelia, at Mustapha-Pasha, 20 miles north of Adrianople, resulting in the defeat of the Turks.

During the last few days cannon shots have been heard in the direction of Prisrend and Dijakoba. It is feared that a desperate fight has taken place between the Turks and the Albanians.

The Times' correspondent in Constantinople states that Turkey has no army ready to march, and no elements, money or administrative energy to be placed on a proper war-footing.

Berlin 1st—It is stated that the result of the interview of M. de Giers with Prince Bismarck is an agreement that Servia, Greece and Montenegro will not attack Turkey, in which case Austria will march towards Constantinople. This will cause a conflagration in Russia, and finally result in a general European war.

Vienna 1st—It is generally believed the crisis is becoming more severe, and if the Powers do not interfere, war is inevitable.

Precautionary measures are being taken in case of war. A decree has been issued prohibiting the export of cereals.

The St. Petersburg papers state that the Conference of Ambassadors at Constantinople will not have any important results.

The Roumelian Premier has left, with the object of having an interview with Prince Bismarck, after which he will visit the Czar.

London, 2nd—The Servian Government has armed 80,000 men. It is feared that the King of Servia is preparing some "coup de main" before the Conference breaks up.

The Greeks have sent in a petition to King George, asking him to pursue a vigorous policy with regard to the Roumelian revolution.

Constantinople 2nd—A decree has been issued concentrating troops at Adrianople.

Considerable numbers of Russians are passing into Bulgaria.

Paris 2nd—The Temps states that Russia has decided to reorganize the union of Bulgaria and Roumelia, Germany offering no opposition, and Austria stipulating that Servia, and Greece must be compensated.

Madrid 30th—Yesterday 556 fresh and 207 fatal cases of cholera occurred in Spain.

Washington 1st—It is calculated that a reduction of 12,000,000 dollars has been effected in the Nat. Debt during the month of September. The payments of interest during the same month amounted to 4,000,000 dollars.

Berne 1st—Great inundations are reported in the east of Switzerland.

The Tembay Bridge and Fardies bridge have been destroyed. The whole Rhine valley is flooded.

Montevideo 3rd—The official papers continue to attack Dr. Costa.

A commander in the army has published a letter in which he calls Dr. Costa a traitor.

The marriage is announced to take place this evening of M. Hector Lacueva and Sta. Clara Arteaga.

The death is announced of young Eduardo Fraga.

The Duke of Lucignano is at present very ill. Count Grepi and Senator Carve are also ill. Sickness seems to be visiting the city at the present moment.

In political circles everything appears to be dull for the moment.

General Santos has been presented with two splendid thorough-bred horses by Col. Arribio.

CURSO FORZOSO DEBATE.

The debate on this all-important measure was continued yesterday, in the presence of another most crowded House. The Deputies, notwithstanding the late hour at which they separated on Friday night or Saturday morning, presented no signs of fatigue, and although the article 2 of this law, which was passed on Friday night under such exciting circumstances, was of great importance, in as much as it gave to the National Bank an increased emission of 12 millions, still this article 2 did not possess such great interest as article 4, which, we may say, affected the relations between Debtor and Creditor, and possibly had even wider jurisdiction over the business affairs of the country than the increase of the emission of the National Bank notes.

By virtue of article 4 of this law all the gold contracts entered into before 9th Jan. 1885, when 'curso forzoso' was declared, no matter how carefully worded or expressed, ceased to be gold and were purely paper. Thus, contracts entered into last year, payable in sovereigns or Napoleons, or gold ounces or "oro sellado," were now all reduced to "curso legal," or National Bank notes: a change so sweeping, so violent, and so prejudicial to existing contracts, necessarily incurred the odium of immorality and even dishonesty, and very many of the members who did not belong to the opposition ranks, joined their cause, rather than vote in favor of a measure calculated to dishonor the fair credit of the country.

It was in view of the deep importance of this measure, and the tremendous interests involved, that the public crowded the galleries of Congress Hall to hear the debate. The House met at 2 30 p.m., Dr. Lgeuizamon presiding. The debate was opened by Sr. Villamayor, who opposed the report of the committee, and in a lengthy speech explained his motives for differing from his colleagues in their Report. The following is a translation of Article 3, the subject of the debate:—

Art. 3—All the Banks of emission at present existing are included in this law, such banks being in the same condition as those whose notes have been declared "curso legal" by the decree referred to in Article 1st.

Mr. Villamayor opposed new banks of emission and argued that emissions do not increase wealth or production, but merely give new nominal values to things, nothing more. He opposed this article, since it gave "curso forzoso" to the E. R. bank, which even the cabinet itself declined to do and which the Senator rejected.

Mr. Funez, as member of the majority of the committee, replied and quoted from Macauley and other writers, to show the working of banks in Ireland and Scotland. He considered that emissions, when properly regulated, were blessings and helped much the productive interests of the country (applause); with regard to Entre Rios, it is a rich fertile and thriving province, and he saw no reason why it should not have its bank and that bank have the benefit of the present law.

Santa Fé, Mendoza, Cordoba, San Luis, San Juan all had their banks, and why not Entre Rios! And if the Senato had thrown out that bank, the committee took care in wording its report, so as to include it without mentioning it. Entre Rios is not Ireland—we are not now Legislating for Scotch or Irish banks—(much interruption) Mr. Funez begged opposing Deputies to be calm, to talk one at a time and not altogether (laughter.)

D. Luis Leguizamon, opposed in "toto" the article, and came prepared with official data to show up this Entre Riano bank, what it is and what it isn't: it was born after "curso forzoso"; its Capital should by its charter be gold, but the Entre Riano Government had allowed its Capital to be National Bank notes; yet, it was not even that and he was prepared to prove it.

The nominal capital of the bank is 3 millions gold, and the working capital 600,000 $m/n gold, but where is this 600,000 $m/n, even in Nat. Bank notes? Nowhere. Thirty thousand shares were offered, of which the Government subscribes for 10,000, and paid their call with a "vale." The public, spite of the most superhuman efforts, only took 6,820 shares, leaving 13,180 shares unsubscribed for. What a pretty state of things! The whole province was hunted up and down by commissioners, yet only 6,000 shares taken. The Government, finding that it was impossible to raise 600,000, required by the charter, launched a decree enabling the bank to begin business with only $300,000 m/n capital in paper, and the consequence is—the bank is open, pretending to do business, but the real state of its cash is—one Condor on hand and a big "vale" of the Entre Rios Government for 200,000 $m/n treated as cash.

The National Bank in Parana is the victim and the public of Entre Rios; and that is the bank we are asked to give curso forzoso to its notes. The Provincial Bank of Cordova is a bank; it pays its notes to-day in specie and wants no curso forzoso, and if you give it, it won't accept it. It is all very well to give curso forzoso to banks that have large business, large 'carteras,' large credits etc, so that to avert public loss the bank is helped, but here with this E. R. Bank, what business, what 'cartera,' what influence, trade etc. has it? Nil. Nil. Its expenses amount already to 21,000 m/n, but the directors have declined their salaries, and its slender cash, instead of gold—paper and 140 the price to-day.

Gen. Mansilla, 142½ if you please. (laughter). Session rose for ½ hour.

Sr. Maglione, Deputy for Entre Rios replied to Deputy Leguizamon, and showed that the Entre Rios bank was started not in 1885, since "curso forzoso," but in 1884, and that owing to the crisis the founders of the bank had to suspend operations; many who had subscribed for 100 shares only took 20, and there was great difficulty to contend with, but finally they triumphed, and the bank was started, and well started, and is managed by a gentleman of great banking experience, high testimonials, and who had managed already 3 branches of the National Bank with great success.

The Nat. Bank is not sufficient for Entre Rios, one of the richest of Argentine Provinces; it want its own bank, it subscribes for its own bank, and it has started its own bank, and there is no just reason to raise such a howl against this young and thriving, and prosperous bank with over 200,000m/n in actual cash on hand and over 270,000 $m/n in discounts. If the shares were subscribed from 'rancho' to 'rancho' in Entre Rios it speaks all the more favorably for the bank which has been started by the people of Entre Rios.

Mr. Calvo in a very able speech opposed the Article No. 1, and now he opposed Article 3. He said Congress should not foster these various provincial banks, and create an anarchy of currency. Mr. Calvo's speech is too important to cut down, so we shall stand on it until our next, in order to give it fuller.

Deputy Paz then followed, and in a speech of fiery eloquence attacked the monstrosity of giving another new emission to Entre Rios. Soon Jujuy, Rioja, and all the others will apply for the same, and they must get it, and that before Congress meets next year; it will be done by Government decree.

Congress is pushing the country to headlong ruin, paper, paper and nothing but paper. For Heaven's sake let us stop somewhere, but you won't, you have your majority. The day will soon come when your Nat. Bank notes will be at a pretty depreciation. Since this debate began they have gone from 137 to 142½, and now we vote a new emission to this Entre Riano Bank.

Deputy Paz broke out into a splendid apostrophe to the Provincial Bank, which we hold over owing to no room now for this speech.

Mr. O'Carapo next followed against the Article.

Then followed Sr. Gomez, but the House was getting tired and an adjournment was moved which was rejected. Mr. Gomez continued showing that 'curso forzoso' is no calamity at all, and that in England or France the more paper was issued the more its value improved.

At last the House voted the Bill sufficiently discussed and Article 3 was put to the vote.

For it..... 32
Against it..... 30

The House then adjourned.

A piano-playing contest recently took place between twelve ladies of Dover, N. H. Four fire companies and a detachment of police hastened to the scene, but upon being informed of the nature of the tumult they withdrew with profuse apologies.

DR. PACHECO'S SPEECH.

At the debate in Congress on the "curso forzoso" bill Article, 2nd on list Friday, the Minister of Hacienda spoke with great fire and eloquence. He said:—

The informing committee have every reason to be satisfied with the results of the debate; no decisive opposition has been raised against their views.

This is the first time the Nation has triumphed over the provinces in upholding and reserving the right to sanction laws on money, in conversion etc, on which important subjects the provinces, especially that of Buenos Ayres, formerly legislated most abusively.

The faculty to dictate such laws belongs exclusively to the National Congress; but in exceptional and calamitous circumstances the Executive can take similar steps, although Congress should be sitting at the time, as happened on the 29th March, 1876. These are cases in which the Executive must not remain idle while the country's interests and welfare are at stake.

On the other hand, Congress has unlimited power to legislate in money matters; it can declare paper as legal tender; the rest is mere theory.

It may be observed that here, to attribute to the Ministers words he has not uttered and declarations he has not made, has become quite customary. I am in a position to repudiate such imputations. I did not state that Government had decided not to use its foreign credit and make further issues of paper under the responsibility of the Banks. I did not support the Oran Railway project. I opposed it. I did not support any project for further public works; the Gonzalez proposal referred to public works already decreed and in course of construction already for some time.

Efforts, I observe, are being made to make the National Bank question a political question. In the financial arrangement of 1876 the Bank figured as the head of the Grand Turk. It prospered nevertheless up to 1881, when the arrangement referred to was broken. The capital of the bank increased. In 1882 Government subscribed 8 millions and the public 20 millions. The country should be proud of such an institution. Formerly the provinces could not obtain money under 8, 12 and 16 o/o; to-day they have the same advantages as in the Capital (applause.) What, indeed, would have become of cattle-breeding in Entre Rios and Corrientes; of agriculture in San Juan, and Mendoza, of the sugar industry in Tucuman, Santiago, and the Gran Chaco, etc but for the National Bank, which infused life into these and the many other industries of the provences? Where is the Provincial Government that has not been favored by the National Bank, by this institution whose capital rose from 5½ millions to 20?

In England when forced currency was decreed, a new issue was made. In France and Italy the same course was pursued. Even in this Republic the currency was increased by 10 millions after the "curso forzoso" of 1876. Where then is the motive for surprise that the National Bank should increase its issue? But let it be well understood, the Bank in question will not be compelled to increase its emission, but will be merely authorized to do so. Let it also be remembered that the capital of this bank is sound and that consequently no danger will be incurred by a further emission of paper. Here the Banks cannot be saved as in Europe. Here our circulation is paper; gold is to be seen only in the windows of exchange-shops with or without "curso forzoso." The National Bank has not caused the present financial difficulties, as many, out of a spirit of opposition no doubt, assert. The crisis is the result of the public works, of the emission of public funds, of the contracts not fulfilled by these funds. The National Bank, in the meantime, has saved the Government by giving it money to continue the works at the Riachuelo, the railways and other works of public utility.

The Provincial Bank has been treated most fairly and cannot complain; but the emission of this Bank cannot overstep the limits improsed by its laws.

With regard to the National Bank there can be no danger in increasing its paper issue. Deputy Paz's project would bring about the ruin of the Bank. According to the hon. Deputy, an issue should be made on the joint responsibility of the Bank and the Government. This would despoil the Bank of its capital and even of its interests. (applause)".

In reply to Deputy Posse, the Minister stated that the project for the consolidation of the floating debt was not included in the decree for the prorogation of the Chambers, but that it would perhaps be included later on; within the week; but that everything depended upon the turn of events.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

THE GRAND NATIONAL.

The Race Meeting at Palermo on the 11th inst. promises to be by far the most interesting of the whole season. The programme contains five races, besides the Grand National, in all of which very fair fields may be expected to come to the post. The great attraction, however, will doubtless be the Grand National, in which it is calculated that at least twenty-five horses will put in an appearance, and perhaps more. The prize is the biggest that has ever been run for in this country—10,000 nacionales to the first, 600 to the second, and 100 to the third; and all who can will surely have a try for it, even if their chances are of the very smallest. In the 'remates' that have been held hitherto, this race absorbed almost exclusively the attention of our speculating turfites, and the leading favorites have been: Surplice, Kettledrum and Escoces, of the Club Buenos Aires; and Beausoliel, of the Ecurie Prisionero. The rest of the horses have been almost entirely disregarded; but within the last few days some dark ones have been emerging from their apparent obscurity, the most notable being Intendente, which has lately taken a leading position in the betting. Mary Seaton and Kingshill are also coming in much favour; and next to these General and Coronel. Luther and Cora are apparently neglected, although, judging by their previous performances, they might command a far better position. When such a number of good animals come together, it is difficult even for the most knowing to form anything like a rational judgment; but we think in this race the winners may be fairly looked for among the thoroughbreds, such as Beausoliel, Escocés, Intendente, Mary Seaton, Kinshill, General, Good-bye, Carrier, Coronel, Baronet and others; and of these, judging by his performances, we would be inclined to pick out Beausoliel, who, report says, is in grand condition. We append the list of

We are informed that the Oeste Santa Fecino Racing Club have organised a race meeting, to be held on the Villa Casildo race course, on the 20th December. The programme was submitted to the Buenos Ayres Jockey Club, under whose patronage the meeting is to be held, and approved by the Committee on Thursday evening. The entries are to close on the 23d inst., and among the prizes to be run for we understand there is one for 3000 nacionales. As it is expected that the railway to Rosario will be open to public traffic early in December, the facilities for the conveyance of horses will be greatly increased, and it is to be hoped that our principal studs will send horses to compete with the Santa Fé horses.

THE FLORES CONCERT.

The Concert arranged by a distinguished body of amateurs and professionals, on behalf of the Funds of the Flores Chapel, was given on the evening of Tuesday, September 22nd, and proved a great success. All arrangements were admirably and punctually carried out; and the only regret that could occur to the promoters of the concert was that the theatre was not fuller.

The programme was very select, and provided a musical treat seldom given to the people of Flores. Miss Johnstone, who has been but a short while in the country, but who has already gained a position in the musical world, rendered her two songs with admirable accuracy and feeling of expression: she deservedly merited the applause she obtained. Mr. F. Mackern has a fine baritone voice, which, without being very powerful, is highly sensitive, and rippled through the house; especially gaining applause in the "Caro mio ben" of Giordini. Mr. Miller's powerful voice was heard to great advantage, and he was singularly happy in the second of his songs, "Ho messo nuovo corde al mandolin." But the gems of the evening were undoubtedly the two duets and the solos of Miss Lumb and Mons. Paul. The rich, clear notes of the former filled the whole theatre, and brought down rounds and rounds of applause. Very gracefully and kindly, in compliance with repeated recalls, she consented to sing as an encore "Home, sweet home," with such clear, sweet intonation of voice that every rippling note penetrated not merely to the ear but to the hearts of every hearer. A very pleasing idea was the presentation, both to Miss Lumb and Miss Johnstone, of bouquets by two young girls. Mons Paul, besides his duets with Miss Lumb, sang with even more than usual fervour Donizzetti's "Como t'adoro," and his admirable rendering gained him a most merited ovation.

In the instrumental parts of the programme, the duets of Dr. Mackern and Sr. Rolandone met with great favour; both being perfect masters of the piano; and the latter in his solo was remarkable for his wonderful clearness of execution. Though young, Sr. Rolandone can take his rank among the first pianoforte players of the city. The trio from "Loreley," for violin, violincello and piano, was very well given. Signor Padovani, in his solo on the violin, with variations of the "Mocking Bird," created a favourable impression. The Liszt organ, kindly lent by Mr. Hodsoll, was admirably played by Mr. Cassels. It is an instrument of marvellous scope, from the lowest, tenderest notes to the highest tones; it thoroughly deserves the reputation it has acquired.

Altogether, the concert was a success, and was brought to a close within five minutes of the advertised time, thus allowing all to return home comfortably.

Signor Angelini, the well-known baritone, has just married an Argentine lady and started for Europe for the honeymoon. Pleasant voyage.

THE SEASON.

La Britanica, Venado Tuerto,
30th Sept. 1885.

To the Editor of the STANDARD

Dear Sir

I have read with interest the letters which have from time to time appeared in your columns, and in those of your contemporaries, regarding the mortality in stock during the past season.

Although rather late on the scene perhaps you will kindly permit me, as a two years' resident here, a few words in reference to the Venado Tuerto and Loreto camps, which have lately received such a share of censure.

Undoubtedly the past winter has been an unsatisfactory one in this partido, but has it been altogether satisfactory in any other district? To my own knowledge some of the individuals who lost sheep here from disease and poverty would have lost almost as many, if not as many, on the "cardo and trebol" camps from which they migrated.

It is evident that sheep require more attention on 'pasto fuerte' lands than on the so-called "inside" camps; they need a much greater area for pasturage, and the flocks should necessarily be much smaller; two things which many of those who lately brought sheep here, appeared to have totally overlooked, and this as much as anything else has been a great cause of mortality and loss.

I am myself a loser during the past winter, although not to the extent to which some of my neighbours complain, but I am far from being disheartened, and should be sorry to lay the blame of a bad year on a locality which has given excellent results for several previous years; nor would such a sweeping condemnation be fair.

If the Correspondent, whose letter appeared in the Herald of 5th Septb., (and which I have only just now seen) will take the trouble of paying me a visit, I will shew him three things—

Firstly—As fine alfalfa, in its second year, as he will find, I am convinced, in the Province of B. Ayres.

Secondly—Capones, fat enough for any ordinary table.

Thirdly—Cattle which for condition will bear comparison well with any of the "Haciendas" between this and Pergamino.

These facts are in themselves sufficient to show that the Venado Tuerto camps are not so wholly bad as some people seem anxious to prove. The fact is, in my humble opinion, that some of my countrymen brought their flocks here to unfenced camps, thinking they had nothing to do but sit down and watch them multiplying, and that they had found a veritable "El Dorado" in the Venado Tuerto. When things turned out unfavourably during a season which has been remarkable for 'peste' everywhere, they hastened to throw the blame on the badness of the camps, never taking into consideration that their neighbours inside had in many instances been almost equally unfortunate while paying high 'puesto rents.

No doubt the remedy for such a winter as the past is tillage with the sowing of alfalfa, for which the soil in this neighbourhood, at any rate, is excellently suited, and I am strongly of opinion that the man who keeps his sheep in small flocks, shepherds them carefully and sows a few squares of alfalfa every year, will with ordinary luck be better off on 'pasto fuerte' at the end of half a dozen years, than if he had been paying the high rents which are at present demanded inside during that time.

The sheep and cattle are rapidly improving in condition at present, and although the flocks are somewhat scabby, the mortality has almost quite ceased on my estancia, and I believe on others around.

I am Sir,
Yours, etc.,
John R. Gordon.

MR. DENSTONE'S ENTERTAINMENT.

If artistic merit is to be accepted as a criterion of success, Mr. Denstone is to be warmly congratulated on the result of the entertainment which he gave last Wednesday night. But it is to be greatly feared that the pecuniary result will not be sufficient to encourage him, plucky as he has shown himself, to proceed further, for the audience, although well representative of both fashion and culture, scarcely seemed numerous enough to make the affair profitable. The apathy of the English public here in such a matter is much to be regretted. It would be difficult to provide better fare for the modest price charged, and such entertainments, though scarcely possessing the excitement and variety offered by a full dramatic company, afford a pleasant and intellectual way of passing an evening, an opportunity that occurs too seldom here to be neglected.

Madame Carlany, who is well known in French circles, is possessed of a fine voice and great power of expression, and sang the three songs allotted to her very well, indeed, especially the last, "Valse des Cents Vierges," which was remarkably brilliant and deserved a hearty encore, which the public seemed too cold to bestow.

Sr. Roig is certainly one of the best, if not the best, flautists we have heard here, and played both his pieces most charmingly. He, too, deserved more applause than he obtained.

Mr. Wilson, a baritone, sang "The Pilgrim of Love" very pleasantly, indeed, but was scarcely so fortunate in his other selection, "The Leather Bottel."

Sr. Bonanni, who had a great deal to do, proved himself a brilliant and well-trained pianist, whom we hope to hear frequently. He was, however, handicapped by an inferior instrument.

Notwithstanding his long recess, Mr. Denstone showed no signs of being out of practice; on the contrary, we have rarely seen him to greater advantage. In his two new soliloquies from "Hamlet" he looked most picturesque, and his musical voice and trained enunciation received new power from the good acoustic properties of the saloon: they were just long enough to show how much he could do with the character if he had the opportunity of playing it in its entirety. But his "tour de force" was a representation of an old miser. In one dramatic and boldly-conceived scene this old man passes through incidents and emotions enough to fill a five-act tragedy, every one of which Mr. Denstone, never forgetting the striking characteristics of the part, for which he was admirably made up, presented with unmistakable fidelity and power. To command the attention of an audience for nearly forty-five minutes at a stretch, is a severe test, yet Mr. Denstone held his audience spell-bound, and when the curtain fell with a storm of applause on the dead body of the miserable old man, few could have imagined so much time had been occupied. This was not any ordinary piece of recitation, but a dramatic and psychological study of the highest nature, worthy a great artist, and likely to be long remembered by its auditors. Indeed, this formed an entertainment in itself, and deserved to have been witnessed by far greater numbers. His other selections were comparatively unimportant.

Mr. Denstone has once more fully asserted his talent, which has not been surpassed, to our thinking, by that of any English artist we have seen here, and his personal claims alone, apart from the other attractions of his programmes, ought to obtain for him a far greater mead of favor than he has yet been accorded We hope he is not discouraged, but will persever until he achieves the position he is certainly entitled to.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

Rio Janeyro, 24 Sept.

An enterprise has been started at Taubaté, S. Paulo, for the supply of that town with water. The proposed rate of charge is 38000 per month.

A correspondent of the Diario de Noticias gives a gloomy account of the coming coffee crop in the municipalities of Leopoldina, Mar de Hespanha, Rio Novo and Juiz de Fora, province of Minas Geraes.

A telegram from Ceará on the 17th inst. states that the winter there has been unfavorable and that food is very scarce. There is as yet no danger of famine, but should the next winter not be early and favorable there will result great distress.

At Pará excursions are now announced for witnessing the famous pororocas in some of the outlets of the Amazon. These pororocas are phenomenal tidal waves, or "bores," which sometimes overflow the river banks and cause great destruction.

A very serious distrubance occurred recently at the penal settlement of Fernando Noronha, which caused the relief of the officer in command there and the arrest of some 100 convicts. A force of the line arrived on the 10th and arrested the ringleader of the mutinous convicts who is described as having been found in the commandant's house, and appearing dressed in broad-cloth with a watch and chain, and a gold eye-glass secured by a hair guard. It is satisfactory to know that the officer commanding the troops showed great firmness and the mutiny was quelled, not however until a murder had been committed.

The Barcellos central factory, Campos, crushed an average of 19,854,649 kilos. of sugar cane for the six years ending 1883, and the net revenue for the same period ranged from 131,858$470 in 1881, when 25,602,797 kilos. of cane were crushed, to 5,052$422 in 1878, when the amount of cane ground was only 16,225,627 kilos. In 1884, 24,994,910 kilos. of cane were crushed and the net profits were only 1,122$713. This great difference is explained by the decline in the price of sugar and rum; the former averaged for 1883, 253 reis per kilo. and the latter 142$ per pipe. In 1884 the respective prices were 166 reis per kilo. and 113$ per pipe. These are serious figures for the consideration of shareholders in central factories.

The drouth throughout the province of Sao Paulo, which has been of long duration, was broken on the 20th by a welcome rain.

There were 242 deaths in Pará during the month of August, of which 44 were from beri-beri. There were deaths from yellow fever, but the number is not published.

There are strong reasons to suspect that the robbery at Porto Alegre of the government fiscal agency was no robbery, but a defalcation. The treasurer has been arrested, and is now receiving visits and condolences from a host of friends.

The inauguration of the Rio Branco central usine, Minas, took place on the 7th inst. This mill is mounted with English machinery, and has a capacity for grinding 350 tons of cane per day. This quantity of cane is expected to yield 20 tons of sugar, besides the molasses and rum. The company has also put in arc and incandescent electric lights, so that the mill can be operated night and day during the grinding season.

The representative of the Compagnie Générale de Chemins de Fer Brésiliens asked that the accounts against the various government departments should be paid monthly, when the company pays in the passenger tax, but the minister of agriculture refused the request on the 14th.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

"Curso forzoso" in Greece! By all the De—lphoses! It's a nice thing to see the Argentine Republic on a par with Greece. The next place marked for forced currency is evidently the Caroline Islands, or Zanzibar.

The debate in Congress yesterday was even grander than on Friday. The fight waxes hotter. They only got to Article 3, and the division was very close—32 to 30. Let us hope that Article 4 will be vanquished. Deputy Paz deserves a diamond medal.

It is with regret we announce an outrageous act of vandalism committed at the Episcopal Chapel at Flores, last Friday night. It appears that some low miscreants got in by the back entrance, pillaged everything, and destroyed all the furniture, even including the large cross on the altar. The police have been communicated with, but up to the present no traces of the ruffians have yet been discovered.

The recently inaugurated saloons of the German Club Germana, Calle Alsina 344, one of the oldest and most popular of our foreign clubs in the Plate, will be scene to-night of a theatrical performance and grand ball for the benefit of the Club itself. We have seen the programme which is certain to give satisfaction. We wish the able management a great success.

His Holiness has dissolved the marriage of Count San Antonio, son of Marshal Serano, and a Cuban young lady of fabulous wealth, whose case created a tremendous sensation in Madrid about a year ago.

The price of "cooters" is going up. There was a good one sold at the Boca last week for 1154 Nats. We consider this cheap for a good cooter.

We are authorized to a correct statement which appeared in this column last week, to the effect that Mr. Keyser had sold his Teleforno Mecanico to Sr. Fontan, no such sale having been effected.

Dr. Hanley of the British Hospital, who has such a wide circle of friends in the Plate, passed his examination before the Medical Board on Tuesday and came off with flying colors. We salute the Doctor and congratulate him on his merited diploma.

Father Foran left town yesterday for San Nicolas. He proceeds to the Falkland Islands in a few days.

We have received the following from a lady subscriber:—

Why weareth the farmer no smile?
All is bright, yet he groaneth awhile;
'Tis the scab in his flock
Is the cause of his shock—

HAYWARD'S ESPECIFICO his grief would beguile.

The cablegrams yesterday look awfully gay for the Sick Man. He has neither money, nor army, nor navy, nor resources of any kind. His Pashas have played him the same trick as his Generals played poor Napoleon the Third. The money voted for the army has been swindled away, and the country is defenceless. If Russia were not afraid of England and Germany, now would be her time fsr a final rush for Constantinople. The British Mediterranean squadron has been ordered to the Dardanelles. Turkey and Austria and Servia and Bulgaria are all preparing for war; so is Italy. Is the general scrimmage at last at hand?

Not the slightest complaint can fairly be found with the weather, and we hear there is a lot of shearing going on North and West.

Mrs. Shoddy, to shopman: "Show me a thermometer—one of your best." Shopman: "This, ma'am, is one of our finest—Venetian and the best of quicksilver." Mrs. Shoddy; "Silver, that would be nice for the kitching, but I want one for my boodore. Haven't you one with quick gold?"

"Pacificadores de Peru" is what President Iglesias calls 4,000 Falstaffians he has got together for another bout with Caceres. Much better make some kind of peace with that very troublesome patriot.

We see that the Industrial Club has the coolness to demand Protection from Government for 1,200 quarrymen at Olavarria and in the South generally, on the plea that the home-made paving stone is going to the dogs, and the 1,200 will have to take to some other calling if Congress does not exclude the foreign stone! The foreign stone is cheaper and better in every way. In fact the native article is abominably bad, and worse cut, as the streets of the city too sadly testify.

The telegraph was in fault about General Napoleon Uriburu's political speech in the Interior the other day. He did not make it at all. It was spoken "trippingly on the tongue," by Mr. Joe Posse, a local politician of considerable volubility.

During a forenoon saunter about the harbour the late Provost of Peterhead, on observing a fisherman land a variety of fish, including one of the shark species, inquired, "What is the name of that lang, sharp-nosed beast, Buchan?" "Weel, sir, I'm no' richt sure o' his real name, but we ca' him a sea lawyer, as he tak's a'thing he can get." The Provost, who was a lawyer in extensive practice, did not ask any more questions.

With tears in our eyes we have to announce that the Fencing fiesta given on Friday night by the Damas de Misericordia was a complete fiasco. Hardly a soul in the place. The fact is that these charitable "fiestas" have been much overdone of late. Yet we see some more on the tapis; amongst them an open-air affair at Palermo on the 25th for the "Niños Desvalidos."

Vice-President Madero's family thought he was lost on Friday evening, because he did not turn up for dinner, and set the police to work to look for him; but H. E. turned up safe and sound about 23½ o'clock, and was rather amused when he heard of all the fuss.

Mr. Justice Arrotea is one of the smartest Judges on the bench. He has just decided right off a sut about a house in Calle Temple that had been going on for the last 15 years, in the hands of a dozen other Judges.

We strongly oopose Alderman Del Campo's motion to change the names of a lot of streets. There has been enough of this childish nonsense already. Of what benefit to anybody is it to call Calle Piedad (a nice short crisp name) "Monteagudo?"

EDITOR'S TABLE

One of the police Sections got a new Commisary the other day and he began his reign by a raid on all the frail sisterhood within his jurisdiction, and when he had the Comisaria filled with some forty of them, he did not know what to do with them, and the great man let them go home. He had no more right to arrest them in their houses than king Theebaw, but police Commissaries in this country look on themselves as Czars, and frequently violate the law and make themselves ridiculous at he same time.

The Rosario papers are still full of the political woes of that irrepressible place San Lorenzo. In changing its former Gefe Politico, Mr. Fierro, for the present one, Mr. Fayo, it has fallen out of the frying-pan into the fire. It is hard to say which of the two Fs is the worst. Mr. Fierro did all sorts of queer things; but Mr. Fayo has gone the length of disobeying the Criminal Judge, violating the Constitution, outraging the rights of citizens, snapping his fingers at the law, and threatening to have the corpse of anybody who mentions the words Habeas Corpus in his august presence. We'd rather live out of San Lorenzo.

General Bartholomew Mitre will shortly start for Europe and make a tour through the whole of that continent. We believe the General has never yet been in the old world.

The gossips have it that the sudden flight to Montevideo of M and Madame Poirie of the Sebastiani company was caused by the lady being furiously and doubly jealous of another fair member of the troupe——first on account of the latter lady's beauty and talents; and second because her fickle lord P. had fallen head and ears in love with her. Madame P. is not a lady to stand this sort of thing, so she cut the matter short by ordering a march for Montevideo, in spite of the tears, threats and prayers of her fickle spouse.

Last month the total arrivals here of emigrants from Europe were 4623. No great things. The United States don't want any more emigrants from Europe, and the aim of the day is to stop their coming. The Germans will mostly, of course, go off to their grand new colonies in the Carolinas and Zanzibar, and on the pleasant and cool coast of Africa; still we may be able to induce some of them to come to the Plate.

One of the fellows engaged in the big robbery at Constenla's auction mart last year escaped in a clever way. When the police went to look for him he pretended to be an old woman dying of black small-pox, and they did not go near him. The moment their backs were turned the "dying woman" disappeared.

A madman set fire to the chapel in the Melchor Romero Hospital on Friday, but very little damage was done.

The Lottery drawing for the Merced Church takes place to-day. There will be others soon for the French Orphanage and the Spanish Hospital. It is evident that everybody wants to get as much as possible out of the Lotteries before they die. What about the grand $200,000 Lottery the Lord Mayor is thinking of for Christmas Eve? It will be the last lottery drawn in this city; and we would like to win the big prize for a "memento mori."

A love-letter may be said to be a writ of attachment.

Is it correct to speak of a sick lawyer as an ill legal man?

Somehow or other everybody sometime or other wants to sing "Auld Lang Syne," and only one man in a million knows the words, and he only knows the first verse, and he doesn't sing it right.

Good gracious! The 2000 new hands wanted in Esperanza Colony from the Immigration Bureau are not farmers, but "fabricantes," as manufacturing industry is going ahead there like the Argentine National Debt. What do they manufacture? Alcohol and "alpargatas"?

There's hope for Lottery gamblers yet. After the 1st of January next, the Agentes Unidos will resume their drawings in Santa Fé, or Rosario, it doesn't matter which. We see that the name of a Mr. Monteverde is given as the winner of the big prize in the last drawing of this lottery. According to the Spanish Burkes and de Bretts, the Monteverdes are the Iberian branch of that very ancient family the Verdant Greens. Green as the deep green sea must the being be who believes that Mr. Monte V. is not first cousin to Mrs. 'Arris.

Our highly esteemed colleague El Oasis, in San Luis, is a complete desert as regards news. We suppose that there is no news, or it would be in it.

We would feel very much obliged for any information as to the whereabouts of Mr. John White, of Whitelees, County Dublin, who resided for some time near Carmen de Areco, a year or two ago. We have family news for him.

Meat was never so dear in Asuncion as it is now. Asuncion meat is miserably poor stuff at best.

There is already some Carnival talk in the papers. The annual nuisance will begin on March 7th.

The Orenoque's passengers landed yesterday. Amongst them was our distinguished friend Dr. M. Cane, Argentine Minister in Vienna, and Dr. Alfredo Fernandez.

Mr. Wm. Cranwell is about to follow up his recent political banquet with a children's dinner, theatrical performance and ball. The litle ones will have enough to do to get through such a heavy programme.

The City Analyst has as hard a job as ever with the "industriales del pais". The wines examined last month show 82 poisonous, 40 dangerous, 22 middling, and 249 good. The safest and cheapest wine to drink is Valiente Puntano.

Nueva Bomba Patente
'SIMPLEX'
La Bomba mas barata, mas duradera y eficaz
Inventada hasta hoy.

La falta de una Bomba simple, eficaz y barata ha sido sentida hace mucho tiempo, que sin perdida de fuerza ni peligro de ser atascada pueda bombar toda clase de liquidos.

Para suplir esta falta ha sido inventada—

La nueva Bomba
" SIMPLEX "

La cual es igualmente util tanto para bombar liquidos de todas clases como para pozos y algibes.

Damos a continuacion el resumen de algunas de sus ventajas :

Su construccion es lo mas simple, teniendo un émbolo de fierro que no requiere cueros ni rellenos, y que jamas puede descomponerse.

Las válvulas son hechas de modo que ni paja, arena, hojas etc. etc., puedan atascarla ni evitar que funcione.

Es sumamente portatil y puede ser trasferida de los arroyos, algibes, pozos y la cañeria desunida con la mayor facilidad y sin labor.

Funciona rapidamente y la cantidad de agua que extrae es enorme, considerando la fuerza requerida.

Es superior en todos casos a cualquier otra bomba.

Esta bomba es especialmente adaptable a una Estancia para bombar agua llenar barriles en los arroyos, vaciar baños para ovejas, regar quintas, bombar liquidos en hormigueros, nidos de bichos etc, etc. etc.

Gold	41.50 o/o prem.
Cedulas F	81
Cedulas G	87½
Nat. Bank Shares	149
Nat. Bank Scrip.....	111

The extraordinary speeches of some of the honorable members of Congress are an electric shock to the gold market. The premium advances in a spasmodic manner, and there is a strong boom in the rise. The influence and effects of the vote, granting an increased issue of twelve millions to the National Bank, had already been discounted in the gold market, but nobody was prepared to hear from members of Congress that the State Banks were rotten, that the National Bank cannot pay its gold checks, that forced currency will last for the next hundred years, that the Government will apply for 25 millions more paper money next year, that the country, in fact, is rushing ahead on a sharp decline to blue ruin. Such damaging language launched forth from the benches of Congress put gold to 42 o/o premium to day.

It was bad enough to read in the columns of an influential morning colleague a daily catalogue of diatribes, that not only attacked the financial policy of the Government but injured the credit of the country, both at home and abroad; but members of Congress, in their spirit of narrow opposition, have reached a climax of virulent language that one might have, perhaps, expected to read in the columns of opposition papers, but certainly not to hear from the lips of National Deputies. The effect of these debates in Congress is very visible in the disturbed state of the market. The most deplorable feature of these debates is the general conviction, that there is, unfortunately, a great deal of truth in many of the revelations, and that there are plausible grounds for these tremendous attacks on the Government and on the State Banks. If these debates continue another week, we may be prepared to see gold over 50 o/o premium.

The gold market opened this morning under the breezy influences of last night's vote in Congress. At an early hour the premonitory signs of a speculative squall were plainly visible. The bears looked dejected, and the bulls were in high spirits. Operations for cash embraced $61,000; the market opened at 39.50, rose gradually to 40, and then, in leaps of 50 cents, jumped to 41.50, closing firm as a rock. Over 60,000 were sold at more or less the same rates for Saturday. Thirty thousand dollars were sold for the 15th at 40 and 40½. Half a million was sold for the end of the month; the market opened at 39, advanced rapidly to 40, and fluctuated violently between 40 and 41, closing hard at 40.70 Operations for the end of November amounted to $70,000, rates opening at 38.70 and closing at 40. Thirty thousand were sold for the end of the year at 39, and 10,000 for the end of January at 37½. About $800,000 were sold during official hours. The market closed with a very firm and rising tendency; immediately after the close of official hours fair amounts changed hands for cash at 42 o/o premium. The greatest excitement prevailed in the speculation all morning.

To judge by the quotations of certificates and shares of the National Bank, posted up on the black board to-day, there are many who refuse to believe the damaging statements uttered against the Bank in Congress last night. In the heat of the debate a member stated to the House that the Bank had neither gold nor paper—"credat apella;" that the Provincial Bank had endeavoured in vain to cash a Nat. Bank gold check of 300,000 $m/n for three days! The market, however, gives no credit to these exaggerated statements, and both shares and scrip of the Bank ruled firm to-day. Three hundred certificates were sold for the end of the month at 111. Four hundred shares were sold for the 30th at 148 and 149. One hundred were sold, on call up to the end of next month, at 150. The increase in the emission, however, did not put the expected spurt into prices. Speculators had anticipated a heavy rise in the stock, but there is little or no market for shares at present.

The Provincial Bank drew exchange at the usual rates, up to 12 o'clock to-day. But the Board suspended operations after that hour, no doubt, owing to the sudden whirl in the market. It would be a heavy task for the Bank to draw at 33¾d., whilst gold is in demand at 42 o/o, say 3¾ o/o above the ratio of the bank's drawing rates. Fair amounts of exchange were passed in the market to-day in gold at 46¾—nearly all Montevidean bills. Drawers demand 46¾d., 4.91 to 4.92 frs on Paris, and 4.93 frs. on Antwerp, but no takers. The money market continues easy for paper but tight for gold. None of the banks will let go any gold, with the exception of some small amounts granted by the State Banks. The Provincial Bank gave out sovereigns this week.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

Gold—
For cash 61,660 at 139.50-80-140-140.50 to 141-141.50

For Nov. 30th 100 at 150 (d)

National Bank Certificates, 70 o/o paid—
For Oct. 31st 300 at 111

There is still a funebrious, dead-and-alive aspect about the Cedula market. Paper stocks are evidently losing favour in the investing market. Men with surplus paper money prefer buying houses or lands to sinking their money in stocks. As the depreciation of paper increases, this dullness in the stock market will no doubt increase. A few thousand F were sold to-day for the 5th at 81¼ and 81. A few thousand G changed hands for cash at 87 to 87½. Fifty-five thousand were sold for the end of the month at 87. This Series is no longer so firm, nor in such demand, as last month. As the circulation of paper money will soon be increased by 12 millions more, paper will probably rule easy during the export season, and easy rates of interest and discount will keep up the price of Cedulas and other paper-paying stocks.

We welcome to the R. Plate Mr John Nelson, who represents influential European interests, and in connection with the frozen meat business. It may interest our camp and up-river readers to know that his headquarters are at Messrs J O'Connor & Co.'s.

Our popular and enterprising, engineering friend, Mr Peter Blanch, will leave on the 8th instant by the Cuvier for a three months' trip to Europe. His legion of friends wish him a happy voyage and a speedy return. During his absence, his partner, the leading broker, Mr D Bankier, will represent him.

The Rubens, from Liverpool, and the Valparaiso, from the West Coast, have arrived at Montevideo. The former comes up to-morrow; the latter left to-day for Brazil and Europe. The Rubens's mails will be up to-morrow morning. The Italian steamer Adria, crowded with immigrants, left Rio last night for the R. Plate.

The exchange that the Provincial Bank drew this morning was thrown on the market during afterhours, and the amounts were so large that the rise was checked and a steady decline ensued. The market opened very firm this evening and gold for cash ran up as high as 42½ o/o premium, but the fall came on after four o'clock and the market closed weak, two points lower. The following business was reported during afterhours:—

$200,000 for cash and Monday at 42-42.50 to 42-41.50-40.50-40
$400,000 for 30th at 42 to 41 and 40
$40,000 for Nov. at 41

The market closed at 40 o/o with a weak feeling. The bullish boom fizzled completely, and weakness was very rampant at 5 p.m.

Nineteen hundred hectares of land in the Toscos colony, Gran Chaco, are reported sold for 37,800 m/n. This is a tremendous price, being at the rate of 20 m/n per hectare.

Telegrams from Montevideo quote Unifieds at 49¾ for cash and 49½ for end of month.

We have received the Informe de la Seccion Administrativo of the Department of Public Works of the Nation—a well printed and neatly bound book of 180 pages. This is the first report of the Department, and a cursory glance at the contents shews the great industry of the nepartment and the ability with which the talented Chief has condensed such valuable and novel information into two hundred pages. The report is the most important ever published on the National Railways, and the compilation is ably drawn up by Mr Villalonga, the Inspector and Manager General. At leisure we shall review the contents and publish the most interesting chapters.

The schooner Don Juan, a new vessel constructed especially for the River Plate trade, sailed from the Wear for B. Ayres in September of last year, but encountering bad weather was dismasted and abandoned at sea, being afterwards picked up and towed into St. Lucia W.I. After refitting, Captain Sharman was sent out from London to take her on, and she left port on 28th April last proceeding all well until 27th June, when the Captain, who was below, heard a commotion on deck and hastening up was only in time to see the mate attacked by the three sailors and thrown overboard. The Captain seized a carpenter's hatchet and successfully defended himself against the mutineers, driving them off; he then formed a barricade to protect himself and the steward, a boy of 16. The next day the crew held a consultation and one of their number came aft and requested the Captain to navigate the vessel towards the coast of Africa, stating that they would on arrival take the ship's boat and land. To this request he made an appearance of consent, but kept on his course. No doubt, his life was spared at the time solely that the ship might reach the coast, as none of the men understood navigation; what would have been his fate, and that of the boy, had he steered for and reached the land, can be imagined. Twenty days passed in this state of affairs, when on the 17th July the French frigate Loire hove in sight, and the Captain of the schooner hoisted signals notifying the mutiny and murder. The man-of-war immediately sent an armed boat's crew on board and the mutineers were secured and conveyed in iron to Dakar, four sailors from the frigate being put on board the schooner to bring her into the same port, where the Captain at length landed, utterly prostrated by the terrible strain entailed upon him by the trying time he had passed through. Captain Sharman is well known to several people in the R. Plate as a thoroughly reliable man and a fine type of the British sailor; he saved his life and ship by nerve and policy, in a manner which deserves cordial recognition.

The immigration figures for last month do not compare favorably with those of the same month last year. The following is the comparative table of arrivals for the month of September:—

September.	Steamer.	Passengers.	Immigts.
1884.....	34	4,016	7,059
1885	27	1,245	4,638
Difference	7	2,771	2,421

The falling off is remarkable, but it is easily accounted for by the quarantine regulations that affect arrivals from the majority of Mediterranean ports.

We take the following news, respecting frozen meat, from the London Mark Lane Express:—

"The trade has been almost uniformly depressed, and it has been difficult to make progress at current quotations. In London the inquiry has been curtailed by the absence of many consumers from town, whilst the demand generally remains inactive, owing to the widespread depression in trade. At the same time supplies from various quarters have been abundant. Those of frozen mutton have further increased, whilst the shortness of feed consequent on a continuance of dry weather has led home growers to send stock more freely to market. In both instances there has been an unusually large proportion of fat mutton, which has proved difficult of sale at prices appreciably below those paid for less wasteful carcases of suitable weight. The serious losses lately sustained by importers of American beef have had the effect of somewhat limiting the supplies from the United States, and recent arrivals of New Zealand produce in excellent condition have accordingly come to a slightly better market. Expected arrivals are as follows:—Rimutaka (s), Northumberland and Dunedin from the New Zealand ports; Iberia (s) from Melbourne and Sydney; Wexford (s) from the River Plate.

"The following statement from the last Circular of the New Zealand Mercantile Agency Co, shows the progress made with the various consignments in course of realisation both here and in the provinces, together with the fresh arrivals which have come to hand during the past fortnight:—

Arawa from Lyttleton &c. with 16,264 sheep; 16,264 carcases sold at 4d to 5¼d per lb. Good condition.

Ditto with 1,265 pcs. beef; 1,265 carcases sold at 4¼d to 5¼d per lb. Good condition.

Tongariro from Wellington &c. with 13,521 sheep; 13,300 carcases sold at 4d to 5d roast pieces Good condition.

*Elderslie from Oamaru with 25,788 sheep; 13,000 carcases sold at up to 4½d. Unsatisfactory condition.

Ditto with 758 lambs do. Do.

Lady Jocelyn from Napier with 8,552 sheep; 6 carcases sold at 4½ to 4¾d per lb. Good condition.

Austral from Melbourne with 3,362 sheep; 3,362 carcases sold at 3¾d to 4¼d per lb. Good condition.

Zenobia from River Plate with 13,556 sheep; 7,000 carcases sold at 3¾d to 4¼d per lb. Good condition.

Ditto with 335 qrs. beef; 600 carcases sold at 2¾d to 5d per lb. Ditto.

Cuzco from Melbourne with 3,677 sheep; 3,677 carcases sold at 3¾d to 4¼d per lb. Good condition.

Invercargill from Lyttleton with 9,240 sheep; 700 carcases sold at 4d to 4¼d per lb. Good condition.

Mataura from Napier with 5,737 sheep. Good condition.

Ionic from Wellington &c with 10,184 sheep; 5,500 carcases sold at 4d to 4¾d per lb. Good condition.

Ditto with 1,141 pcs. beef; 600 carcases sold at 4¼d to 5¼d per lb roast pcs. Do.

Aorangi from Lyttleton &c. with 13,524 sheep; 350 carcases sold at 4d to 4¼d per lb. Good condition.

Ditto with 88 pcs. beef; 8 carcases sold at 5¼d per lb. Do.

Liguria from Melbourne with 5,773 sheep; 1,300 carcases sold at 3¾d to 4¼d per lb. Good condition.

"About 4,400 carcases were condemned as unfit for food at shortly after time of delivery from the ship."

"The Ranmoor, which docked at Liverpool on Monday, had on board 7,000 carcases of frozen mutton brought from South America. This is the second consignment to one firm in Liverpool. Some carcases of beef have also been received, and there seems a prospect of a regular trade being opened up. The improvement of South American cattle through the importation of well-bred bulls from the United Kingdom is certain to increase the supply of beef suitable for exportation to this country.

We have received the following for publication:—

LA EDIFICADORA.

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 3rd, 1885

To the Editor of The Standard,

Dear Sir,

I regret to read Messrs. Ancell & Ross's circular in to-day's Standard, as I think it will in no small way prejudice intending shareholders against the Society. Under any circumstances the directors are decidedly wrong in not supplying them with a list of the shareholders and also in trying to prevent them attending the meeting. The shareholders should insist upon them being present and there and then settle the dispute. If there is no commercial morality between promoters and directors there will be a stop to the promotion of companies in this city, which is very much wanted.

Yours truly,

INTENDING SHAREHOLDER.

AS A MEANS OF PURIFYING THE blood and humors, there has never been anything superior to BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA AND PILLS; and where they are faithfully used, we venture to say that no disease, however, aggravated or severe it may be, can long withstand their cleansing, healing, and restoring power.

Important Notice.

I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406 where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.

This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.

I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.

The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:

For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.

Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.

Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.
